 Hello, how may I help you?	您好，請問有什麼需要服務的地方？
 Please take a ticket and wait for your number to be called. Thank you.	麻煩請先抽號碼牌並等待叫號，謝謝。
 No problem. Please wait here for a moment.	沒問題。 請在這邊稍待片刻。
 Please wear a mask in public to stop the spread of the virus.	請在公眾場合戴上口罩以並避免病毒傳播。
 We need to take your forehead temperature.	我們需要量測您的額溫。
 Please spray alcohol on your hands for disinfection.	請在雙手噴灑酒精，以利消毒。
 Please wait while I check that for you.	請稍待片刻。我幫您確認一下。

This race has a long-standing tradition. It offers the chance to see historic monuments and to experience traditional Taiwanese food, so this event is a fan favorite.

Taiwan's traditional cuisine is unique. I especially recommend snacks from the night market. In particular, bubble tea is not to be missed.

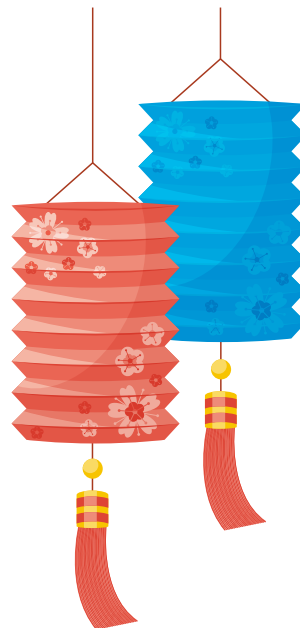

The Lantern Festival is a lively folk cultural event. In addition to yuanxiao foods, there will be activities such as lantern displaying and riddle guessing.

這是一項具有悠久傳統的賽事，結合歷史文化古蹟及傳統特色美食兩大特色，因此深受大眾歡迎。

臺灣的傳統美食別具特色。我特別推薦夜市中的各式小吃，珍珠奶茶更是不容錯過。

元宵節是一個熱鬧的民俗文化節慶活動。除了吃元宵外，各地還有賞花燈及猜燈謎活動。

情境對話 ● Dialogue

Traditions of the Lantern Festival

John and Catherine are planning to attend the Urban Marathon. This is their first visit to Fullerton City, so they would like to explore Fullerton city before the marathon.

They are at the Visitor Information Center (旅遊服務中心) to inquire about travel information. Mr. Wang, a security guard at the reception desk in the lobby, reminds the prevention measures against COVID-19 and checks all visitors' temperature before they get into the center. Later, Desk Officer Hu from the Tourism and Travel Bureau of the Fullerton City Government (富樂登市觀光旅遊局) offers help.

J = John = 約翰

C = Catherine = 凱薩琳

H = Mr. Hu = 胡科員

W = Mr. Wang = 警衛王先生

W: Good Morning. Welcome to Fullerton City.
Please mask up in public to stop the spread of the virus.
 It is a safety measure for yourself and other people.

(John and Catherine are wearing their face masks.)

W: We need to check your forehead temperature before we let you in.

(Mr. Wang is taking John's forehead temperature.)

W: 36.5 degrees Celsius. OK.

(Mr. Wang is taking Catherine's forehead temperature.)

W: 35.8 degrees Celsius. OK.

W: Please spray alcohol on your hands for disinfection first. Thank you for your cooperation.

W: Please take a ticket and wait for your number to be called. Thank you.

Public Address System (PA system): Guest number 18, please come to counter 2. Thank you.

H: Good Morning. Welcome to Fullerton City.

How may I help you?

J: We are going to participate in the Urban Marathon this Sunday and plan to stay in Fullerton City for three days. We are very interested in Fullerton's historic sites. Do you have any recommendations?

H: If you like historic sites, then you have come to the right place.

This race has a long-standing tradition. It offers the chance to see historic monuments and to experience traditional Taiwanese food, so this event is a fan favorite.

-  H: If you are interested in historic sites, I highly recommend the Museum of Fine Arts (美術館) and the Confucius Temple(孔廟). They are two of the most important historic buildings as well as famous landmarks in Fullerton.
-  C: These sights sound very attractive.
-  H: The Confucius Temple has a history of over 300 years. Every September 28, a ceremony will be held in the early morning to commemorate Confucius and ask Confucius for wisdom.
-  J: Where is the Confucius Temple located?
-  H: It is a series of major monuments in the historic district. You can walk on the old streets and enjoy the nostalgic atmosphere there.
-  C: But.....we don't have a driver's license for either a car or a scooter. What is the best way to get around?
-  H: Then I recommend you take the sightseeing bus with audio-guide services in four languages and free Wi-Fi access.
You can buy a 24-hour or a 48-hour ticket, and then you can catch all these tourist attractions in one go.
-  J: Awesome!
-  C: In addition to historic sites, we also want to try traditional cuisine.

H: Taiwan's traditional cuisine is unique.

C: I read from travel books about the minced pork rice, stinky tofu, beef noodle soup, and oyster omelet.

H: Yes, they are all delicious.

I especially recommend snacks from the night market. In particular, bubble tea is not to be missed.

J: That's right.

Bubble tea and papaya milk are two of my favorite drinks.

H: If you like historic monuments and traditional folk festivals, then you must not miss the Lunar New Year Festival and the Lantern Festival.

C: My Taiwanese friend said that the Lantern Festival is a lively folk cultural festival. In addition to yuanxiao foods, there are activities such as lantern displaying and riddle guessing.

H: Flying sky lanterns is a famous traditional activity in northern Taiwan during the Lantern Festival. People usually write their wishes on the lanterns for the coming year.

J: Then we have to write, "WORLD PEACE, END COVID" on a sky lantern!

H: Speaking of the local traditions of the Lantern Festival, sky lanterns will be launched at Pingxi (平溪) in northern Taiwan.

In southern Taiwan, people celebrate the Lantern Festival by setting off beehive fireworks in Yanshui (鹽水).

Should you choose to attend the beehive fireworks activities, it is recommended that you're equipped head-to-toe protective gear and practice caution!

C: It sounds very appealing!

J: What fun to travel to Fullerton City!

H: It is definitely worth the trip!

Applying for a Permanent Driver's License

Mary will work in Taipei for several years. She has questions about using a foreign license to drive in Taiwan. Today she decides to call the Motor Vehicles Office (監理所) and talks to Desk Officer Chen.

M = Mary = 瑪麗

C = Ms. Chen = 陳科員

C: Good morning.

This is the service line from Motor Vehicles Office, Ms. Chen speaking.

What can I do for you?

M: I want to apply for an International Driving Permit.

C: How long do you plan to stay in Taiwan?

M: I am working in Taiwan.

I will be here for at least two years.

C: If you plan to stay for over a year, we advise you to change your U.S. driver's license to a Taiwan license.

M: Why can't I change to an International Driving Permit?

C: This is because the International Driving Permit is for those who will be staying in Taiwan from 30 to 365 days, so it is no longer valid after a year.

M: I see.

I heard I can just exchange my U.S. license for a Taiwan license.
Is that true?

C: That depends on the state that issued your license.
We usually follow the reciprocal principles.

M: Oh. I have a Virginia license.
Is that OK?

C: Please wait a moment.
I'm going to check the list of regions and related regulations.
Please do not hang up.....

A few seconds later.....

C: Thank you for your patience.

Yes, you can apply for a Taiwan driver's license with a Virginia license that you've held for at least six months. You won't have to take a road test.

You will have to pass a health exam and a written exam, though.

M: You're kidding.
I can't take a test in Chinese.
I'll never pass it.

C: Don't worry.
You can take the test in English.

M: What a relief.
What documents will I need?

C: You will need to submit proof of Taiwan residency of six months or longer, your foreign license, your passport and a copy of it, and three one-inch ID pictures taken within the past two years. You must also pay a 200 NTD fee and fill out the registration form.

M: Thank you for your explanation.
The rules are much clearer now.
I feel a lot better.

C: You're welcome.
Is there anything else I can help you with?

M: No, that should do it.

C: Great. Thank you for calling.
I hope you have a wonderful day.
